As the D.C. is suspected about the nomination, orders may be taken as to whether Haji Sayed Hussain Sahib may be appointed as Dt Organiser. S. Kamara on Rs 500/- pm.

The recommendation of the D.M and the nomination has been approved by the D.W.P. He is stated to be President of a Panchyat Court, Karkal and a Pleader doing part-work & member of the Dt. War Committee. for orders whether further particulars should be called for from D. W.P.

Are all organisers paid Rs 500 C.S. ? Is a minimum qualification fixed for them (such as matriculation) ? If not fixed, 27.x.42

4/ 27/10 "Please see C.S.'s query at p 3 ante. A list of District organisers, W.P. with their pay shown against each is put up at (W). The minimum pay is Rs 500/- for a non-official Dist organiser, except in the case of Sri. Rao Sahib M. Kumbiraman Nair, Dist organiser, Malabar, (Retired Deputy Collector), whose pay was fixed at Rs 425/- so that his present pay and pension might not exceed the pay he drew when he retired.

C.S.

Someone ought have underlined "Pleader to Government" at Kankal but the mofussil term pleader in Madras — except at HC — gets no deference and very little despite this in the Govt recommendation. Kankal is into the country, but despite he will live in Nagalore appointed -

Should be shamed accept the nomination

3. In connection with the appointment of S.P.'s PP. in E. Godavari dt/ in 1941, in considering the claims of one Mir Akram Ali Sahib Bahadur, pleader doing Govt. work, it was noted that if he was appointed P.P. it might was the look out of the D.M. to make his own arrangements for the work of the Pleader doing Govt. work and that the Govt. were not concerned.

4. In the circumstances, it is respectfully submitted that the note at 'A' on p. 2 CF is not incorrect
